

REGLEMENT

revised May 2025

ABOUT

Founded in 1999, connecting cottbus takes place in Cottbus, Germany, parallel to FilmFestival Cottbus. The 27th edition will be held on 5-7 November 2025 as an on-site event with additional online components. The market aims to foster European co-production with a special focus on East-West co-productions and to connect producers with potential partners. connecting cottbus is also open to producers from outside of Europe with an interest in Eastern European subjects and collaborations.

CO-PRODUCTION MARKET - PROGRAMME & EVENT

connecting cottbus selects up to 13 fiction feature projects in development as part of its cocoPITCH section. The projects will be pitched by two project representatives (producer & director/author) to an audience of potential co-producers, broadcasters, sales agents, distributors, representatives of film funds and financiers.

connecting cottbus additionally presents 6 films currently in production or post-production in its work in progress (cocoWIP) section. These projects will be presented to an audience of potential co-producers, broadcasters, sales agents, distributors, representatives of film festivals and financiers.

During the preparation period (cocoLAB), all project representatives will take part in an intensive tailor-made mentoring programme with international specialists in script/story development, production, financing, marketing, audience design and pitch.

One2One-meetings will take place throughout the event between the representatives of the projects and potential partners. The official meetings will be expanded with the possibility to take place both physically and online to maximise the reach of industry representatives.

Panel discussions, workshops and lectures will explore recent topics around the European film industry.

coco Best Pitch Award

The industry audience will vote for the best public presentation of a project during the pitching session. The cash prize of €1.500 goes to the producer of the awarded project.
